

YVETTE D. RACKS

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

Yvette D. Racks, Administrative Assistant to the Director of the Entrepreneurial Development and Assistance Center (EDAC). Her daily task consists of providing a wide range of administrative and office support activities for the department to facilitate the efficient operation of the organization.

Yvette has been very productive in serving on numerous local planning committees, such as Engaging Youth Entrepreneurs (E.Y.E.) for Change, Inc. and co-chairs the annual conference for Women Owned and Managed Enterprise Network (W.O.M.E.N.). Yvette appeared as a guest on BriefCase Radio Workshop (WEAA 88.9 FM) and Women Talk Live Talk Radio (WCBM 680 AM) in support of women entrepreneurs.

Yvette is a former member of Toastmasters International, a communication and leadership organization housed on the campus of Morgan State University. Her goal is to become an advocate for youth and an effective public speaker, promoting youth organizations nationwide. Yvette recently set on a panel of 12 at The Baltimore Community High School, promoting entrepreneurship as a career option.

Yvette is a Baltimore resident and an energetic, aspiring entrepreneur. She enjoys reading and spending quality time with her family and friends, when asked what keeps her focused. Yvette quickly responds, "My spiritual rim keeps me charged and motivated." Her favorite scripture comes from Philipians 4:13, which states "I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me!"
